SHOOT 2 DESPERADOES HERE

MORE BRITISH SHIPS BOMBED BY INSURGENTS

Several Seamen Reported Killed or Wounded

BLAME JUNKERS

London, June 27.—(P)—Prime Minister Chamberlain's opponents in Spanish ports, sought vainly today to have him arm British merchantmen with anti-aircraft guns. Chamberlain tried to stem a flood of hostile questions with a declaration that "a good many difficulties" stand in the way of such a move.

Replying to Laborite Philip J. Noel-Baker, Chamberlain first said that "further consideration of the suggestion has revealed additional difficulties."

Asked if the government would suggest to the Spanish nonintervention committee that merchantmen be supplied with machine-guns to defend themselves against low-flying attackers, Chamberlain explained that that had been considered but added:

Long List of Assaults
"I am informed that fitting of merchant vessels with anti-aircraft equipment would require structural alterations."

Bombing of two British freighters today by airmen in the sea of the Spanish insurgents, added to a long list of such assaults, severely tested Chamberlain's policy of meeting such incidents with only protests and negotiations.

There were several casualties in the bombardments. Meanwhile the Spanish government's threat to bomb Italian and German cities in reprisal for insurgent air raids was viewed in informed quarters as a desperate "trial balloon" which might, ominous reaction in Great Britain and France effectively had punctured.

Seamen Killed
Valencia, June 27.—(P)—Bombing from aerial raiders today smashed and fired two more British ships in the ports of Valencia and Alicante.

Several seamen were killed or wounded. The first victim of the attacks was the freighter Arlon in the harbor of Valencia. She was set afire and a Rumanian crewman killed.

Three persons were killed aboard the 4,793-ton Farnham when a bomb struck the vessel as it was discharging a cargo of foodstuffs at Alicante.

The vessel was reported sinking. Two Alicante stevedores were wounded when the bomb exploded, ripping a hole amidships but others carried on in a race to save the cargo before the boat settled alongside the dock.

The Farnham left Antwerp for Alicante and Gibraltar on June 11. The 2,997-ton Arlon was reported sinking opposite Nazaret beach, a mile from the port of Valencia, where she was towed after the bombing.

A British officer aboard was said to be wounded.

From Junker Planes
Three bombs from six Junkers (German made planes) set the Farnham afire. The planes dropped forty bombs on the port.

Government pursuit planes gave chase and anti-aircraft guns replied to the said heavy fire. One government plane had to abandon the fight because of the danger of being hit by shore batteries, but the others drove the Junkers away.

Five tri-motored planes dropped 50 bombs in the raid on the port of Valencia in which the Arlon was hit. Three were some civilian casualties.

As at Alicante where several persons were killed or wounded, government pursuit planes routed the attackers after a sharp aerial battle.

Loyalist Offensive
Hendaye, France.—(At the Spanish Front)—June 27.—(P)—Spanish government militiamen not only halted the insurgent drive against Valencia today but took the offensive on all sectors of the eastern front.

The heaviest fighting was on the two flanks of the 45-mile zig-zag front reaching from the Mediterranean to Sarrión, 22 miles southeast of Teruel. On the eastern flank the lines lay across the highway leading from Castellón de la Plana to Valencia, while at Sarrión they crossed the Teruel-Mediterranean highway.

Insurgent dispatches from the front indicated Generalissimo Franco's advance had ceased and said his legionnaires were fighting to hold their positions against repeated government counter-attacks.

As far as actual results were concerned—

Excursion Steamer, South American, is Still Fast Aground

Mackinac Island, Mich., June 27.—(P)—The excursion steamer South American, which went aground off Round Island Saturday, remained fast today and tentative plans were being made to jack up the vessel and slide her off the shoal which was holding her.

The tug Favorite, of Sault Ste. Marie, the coast guard cutter Escondido and the tugboat car E. Wawatom attempted in vain to pull the steamer off tin shoals, at the southeast end of Round Island.

The ship was leaking somewhat beneath its fuel tanks, but it was considered in no danger.

The 125 passengers, most of them Detroiters, left for Detroit yesterday by train. Members of the crew were brought to Mackinac Island.

Investigation of Sales Tax Cheaters

Chicago, June 27.—(P)—Assistant State's Attorney Thomas G. Bugan announced today he had begun a sweeping investigation into what he termed "scandalously prevalent sales tax cheating" after four men were arrested last night and booked in connection with a conspiracy to defraud the state of sales tax returns.

Edward P. Petrak and James J. Petrak, owners of five meat markets, were charged with conspiracy to defraud the state and with making false returns on their sales tax. Joseph Murray, an employee of the city collector's office, and Herbert Bachman, a bookkeeper and pickle salesman, were charged with conspiracy to defraud the state.

Bugan said he had evidence that the four were involved in withholding an estimated $50,000 from the state. He added that the returns of approximately 190 merchants were being investigated by state's attorneys probes.

Kids From 5 to 95 Years Old Flock to Circus Here Today

Circus day, in some respects the summer counterpart of Christmas, is here at last, and children from 5 to 95 have been digging coins out of savings banks all day. Kankakee is host today to Russell Brothers 3-ring circus, which gave its first performance at the Valencia show grounds this afternoon. The second and last will start at 8 tonight, doors opening at 7 to permit time for leisurely inspection of the large menagerie.

This afternoon's large audience greeted with enthusiasm the two-hour program, finding it packed with thrills and first-class entertainment. Habitual circus-goers laughed again at Joe Hodgins, the amazing man who develops within a few minutes from a clumsy tramp to a skilled bareback rider. Comedy and skill were also combined in the spectacular presentation of the Aerial Roberts, three young men who cut

SWEDEN GIVES MONUMENT TO UNITED STATES

President Accepts It from Prince and Princess

IN DELAWARE

Wilmington, Del., June 27.—(AP)—Secretary of State Cordell Hull said today the world needs "men and nation . . . just and wise enough to respect the legitimate rights and aspirations of others."

In an address prepared for Delaware's 300th anniversary celebration, he described Sweden and Finland as standing "among those" countries which meet that specification.

Wilmington, Del., June 27.—(P)—President Roosevelt standing under a rain-drenched canopy, welcomed in "true friendship" today a prince and princess of Sweden.

And from them—Prince Bertil and Crown Princess Louise—the chief executive accepted with "profound gratitude" a monument raised by the Swedish people on the spot where the first of their countrymen landed in the new world.

Speaking at the 300th anniversary celebration of the arrival of those colonists at "The Rocks" here, Mr. Roosevelt expressed "keen sorrow" that Crown Prince Gustaf Adolf, father of Bertil, could not come ashore.

The crown prince, stricken with a kidney ailment, remained on the Swedish liner Kungsholm which brought the royal party across the Atlantic for Swedish-American festivities which extend into July.

Rain, falling steadily through the night and morning, brought a dreary note to the historic scene at the junction of the Christina and Delaware rivers. Decorative flags and bunting sagged.

The young prince was cheered as he rose to present the monument. "To you at the ceremonies we bring greetings and good will from Sweden, for across the ocean," he said in clear English.

He said his father, the crown prince, regretted his sudden illness prevented him from "being among us today" and added: "He hopes to take his place later at the head of the Swedish delegation."

Prince Bertil, dressed in the uniform of a lieutenant in the Swedish navy, said he brought the wishes of his grandfather, King Gustaf V, that "new bonds of friendship" would be the "outcome" of the Swedish-American ceremonies.

Turning to the president, the prince added: "We shall be reminded of the unbroken friendship between Sweden

Arrange Details for Iroquois Fair

Watseka, June 27.—(RN Special)—The Iroquois county 4-H club and agricultural fair this year will be better than ever, it was said today by Charles Smith, president of the county association.

Plans for the fair were made in a recent session of the committee at Milford. The fair will be Aug. 24, 25 and 26.

The principal feature of the Aug. 24 program will be a horse and mule pulling contest. On Thursday the livestock, poultry and farm produce will be judged and the calf show and horse show will be held on Friday.

Bands have been engaged for Thursday and Friday.

Thrilling Acts
The Morris troupe of springboard acrobats drew many a gasp with their intricate somersaults. Russell brothers military elephants, offering an encouraging note to plump women, showed that weight is no obstacle to speedy and graceful performance. The Aerial Ortons offered a fast and skillful double trapeze act and their 5-year old daughter, Norma Jean, led the aerial ballet of charming young women performing on swinging ladders.

The program is punctuated by the pranks of Rube Egan's merry troupe of clowns. The musical score is provided by Professor Brooks and his band.

Russell brothers came to Kankakee from Hoopston, and will proceed to Chicago Heights for two shows on Tuesday.

JAPAN WARNED NOT TO TOUCH HAINAN ISLAND

Britain and France Pledge Security of Indo-China

London, June 27.—(P)—Britain and France have warned Japan to stay off Hainan Island, off the south China coast, and will act to support each other in case "complications" arise, the government informed the house of commons today.

Richard Austen Butler, undersecretary for foreign affairs made the announcement.

Hainan, Chinese territory, is separated by the 150-mile-wide Gulf of Tonkin from French Indo-China and commands the eastern approaches to that colony.

Undesirable Complications
Answering a question whether the British government would support France in regard to the security of Indo-China, Butler replied:

"His majesty's government and the French government, through their ambassadors at Tokyo, have made clear to the Japanese forces and government that they would regard any occupation of Hainan by the Japanese forces as calculated to give rise to undesirable complications."

"Should any complications unfortunately arise, his majesty's government and the French government would not doubt afford each other such support as appears warranted by the circumstances."

Fighting Forces Deadlocked
Shanghai, June 27.—(P)—With Chinese and Japanese forces apparently deadlocked in the Yangtze river below Hankow, Japanese bombing crews today carried out widespread aerial operations over south China.

The Yuling forts on Hainan Island, just off the south China coast, were bombed and the attackers reported Chinese shore batteries there were silenced.

More than 500 miles to the northeast of Hainan the Kwangtung province city of Chaochow was bombarded. The Japanese said that in this attack railway buildings on a line from Swatow, to Chaochow's south, were destroyed.

Many military observers expect that the seaport Swatow may become the point of entry for any Japanese attempt to invade south China. Japanese troops were landed last week

Wilmington Man Goes on Trial Here

Wiley Decker, farmer of near Wilmington, who is charged with assault with a deadly weapon, went on trial before a jury and County Judge John H. Beckers this morning.

The accusation is by his son Dewey, farmer of near Deselm, who claims his father threatened to shoot him with a shotgun.

The son said that his mother recently left his father's home and came to live with him. On the night of June 5, he said, his father came to his farm and, when he was refused admittance, made the threats.

Deputies Shoot 2 "Bad Men"

Two brothers from the little town of Valley City, N. D., have paid the wage of crime. Clarence Easton, 27, left, fell with three bullets in his body as he screamed hysterically at two deputy sheriffs who faced his gun and dared him to shoot it out as the climax of a night-mare of crime across several states. Orelle, 25, is a prisoner in the county jail, shown above with Deputy Sheriff Clinton Craig, left, and Jesse Burton who shot down Clarence and captured Orelle on the Warner farm near Deselm this morning.

Ashkum, Clifton Voters Consider New High School

Ashkum, June 27.—(RN Special)—Voters of Ashkum, Clifton and Mills Grove townships are considering a special election on the proposition of a consolidated high school district.

The proposal includes the erection of a new high school building between Ashkum and Clifton part of the cost to be paid by a federal grant.

This proposition would eliminate the present three-year high schools at Ashkum and Clifton.

Coast Guardsmen Search for Body of Drowned Youth

Chicago, June 27.—(P)—Coast guardsmen searched today for the body of Joseph Ricard, 22, who drowned yesterday while swimming with several companions in a rough Lake Michigan surf. His fiancée, Miss Harriet Horning, 23, looked on helplessly as he sank from sight.

The heavy surf kept a coast guard crew from searching for his body last night. Ricard was the son of a former chief of police of Toledo, Ohio.

Tracy Novinger and Price Banister, both 22 years old, were rescued from the water at the same time Ricard was lost.

TWO KANKAKEE DEPUTIES SLAY 1, WOUND OTHER

Gun Battle Ends Reign of Terror in Cornfield at Warner Farm; Fugitives Shot Indiana Policeman and Kidnaped 4 Persons; Wounded Man in Local Jail.

The plans of two North Dakota youths for a swash-buckling career as bank robbers came to the inevitable bloody and unheroic end this morning in a Kankakee county barn yard.

Cornered by two daring deputies of Sheriff John Stack, who faced the "bad men's" guns in a bold challenge to give up or shoot it out, the desperadoes turned craven and hysterical.

One of them, Clarence Easton, 27, of Valley City, N. D., is dead, shot down by Deputy Sheriff Clinton Craig when he refused to lay down his rifle. He lies in the morgue of the Margan & Clancy funeral home here awaiting the attention of Coroner A. E. Kerger.

The other, Orelle Easton, 25, brother of the dead man, is a prisoner in the county jail with a bullet in his right shoulder. Only a steel vest saved him from the attentions of a physician instead of the coroner.

"It Must Be a Mistake" Says Bandits' Dad

Valley City, N. D., June 27.—(AP)—G. O. Easton, insurance man of Valley City, said today "it must be a mistake," when informed that a man who was killed another injured in a gun battle at Deselm, Ill., had been identified as his sons by the wounded man.

The father said his two sons, Clarence, 27, and Orelle, 25, left Valley City June 9 on a job-seeking expedition.

The father said he last heard from them when they reached Minneapolis and continued east. He said he had not heard from them since.

Begs for Death
Craig ran up and tore the rifle from Clarence's hands. The bandit began to sob and scream again. "Shoot me," he cried again. "Pinch me, don't leave me here."

Burton had begun searching for the other bandit and Craig joined him. As they approached the farm house, bullets began to cut the air about them.

The younger bandit was entrenched in the kitchen of the farm house. The deputies advanced from different angles toward the screen door, through which Orelle was shooting.

As the bandit poked out his rifle to shoot at Craig, there was a volley from Burton's revolver, one of them taking effect in the youth's shoulder.

"You've got me," he cried. "I'll come out." He came out with his hands in the air.

Reign of Terror
The gun battle of the two bandits with the two deputies was the dramatic climax of a brief reign of terror in northern Indiana and Illinois in which the following was chalked up against the bandit-brothers:

The ruthless wounding of an Indiana state trooper near LaPorte, wanton firing at a newspaper photographer who escaped unscathed, the kidnaping of two LaPorte deputy sheriffs who were released eight hours later, a dawn brusk with a pursuing squad of Illinois officers, the kidnaping of a Wilmington farmer and sporadic other fights with pursuers before they met ultimate apprehension.

Pose Closes In
As officers of the law closed down upon them from every direction, the bandits turned to country roads in this county. There the two deputy sheriffs, driving recklessly over a territory that was familiar to them, came upon the desperadoes. State highway patrolmen and other officers also were closing in.

The brothers tried to find a haven on the Jerome Warner farm three miles northwest of Deselm when their automobile, a stolen one, stalled in the mud. They cut across the fields toward the farm and there in the barnyard the officers accosted them.

Clarence Easton was at the corner of a corn crib when the two deputies approached from opposite angles, having left their car on the road to chase the bandits across the open fields without regard of their own safety.

"Shoot Me," He Says
Seeing the deputies come up upon him inexorably, Clarence became hysterical. "Shoot me," he screamed. "Go ahead and shoot me! Here is my heart, shoot me!"

He beat his breast with one hand, while in the other he waved a rifle.

"Put down that gun or I'll let you have it," ordered Craig but Clarence paid no attention. He kept screaming "Shoot me!"

Again the deputy ordered the bandit to throw down his gun but the latter only waved the rifle and screamed. Craig turned loose a volley of bullets and the bandit sank to the ground.

Farming It ...

By WILLARD BOLTE
Farming is a challenging and rewarding profession. It requires hard work, dedication, and a deep understanding of the land. Farmers play a vital role in our society, providing us with the food we need to survive.

The press of this country for more than two centuries has reported and interpreted public affairs and acted as the principal agency in creating markets, distributing merchandise and building commercial and industrial confidence.

Eight Deaths and Many Are Injured Over the Week-End

Springfield, Ill., June 27—(UP)—Eight deaths and nearly 50 injured was the central Illinois week-end toll today from more than a score of automobile accidents and a strong storm.

Byrl Robbins, three, Beardstown was killed yesterday when he was run over by an automobile on the sidewalk near his home. He was playing with his toy automobile at the time.

He was killed when Vern Beebe, Rushville, backed his car out of a driveway.

Whitney Sealy, 22, and Harold Pickett, 22, Negroes, also were killed here yesterday when the car in which they were riding at a high speed, clipped a light pole and crashed into a tree.

Two persons were killed Saturday as a result of a heavy electrical and wind storm, one of the fatalities being caused when a man touched a live power line and the other when a woman was hit by lightning.

Frank Plessa, 31, Springfield, a truck driver, was killed at Glen Carbon, when he touched the fallen power line. He had attempted to remove it from a tree where it had fallen when blown down by the storm.

Mrs. Kathryn Lee, 22, Greenfield, was killed in the front yard of her sister's home at Greenfield, by a bolt of lightning. With relatives she had gone into the yard to pick up apricots blown down by rain and wind.

The windstorm reached near cyclonic proportions, at some points flattening a number of low buildings, uprooting trees and wrecking truck gardens and orchards.

In Springfield it nearly wrecked an air hanger and damaged four planes at the Fleck airport. It also overturned a sail boat in Lake Springfield but its three occupants were rescued by a motor boat.

At Pana, Oscar Cunningham, 51, Tower Hill, a WPA worker, died Saturday of injuries received earlier in the day when he was crushed between a boulder and a truck while employed in a gravel pit.

New Dean of Agriculture

Joseph Cullen Blair, newly appointed dean of the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois, director of its agricultural experiment station and director of its extension service in agriculture and home economics, is known by farm people, fruit growers and business men throughout the state as a result of almost half a century of service in behalf of a more progressive agriculture. He succeeds the late Dean and Director Herbert W. Mumford who died May 21 from injuries received in an automobile accident.

It was just 42 years ago this summer that Dean Blair did his first work with Illinois farmers. As a new member of the college staff he covered the southern Illinois fruit country, first on a bicycle and later in a horse and buggy.

Four years later he started the college's department of horticulture and since then has served continuously as its head. Under his leadership the department has developed to a position of world-wide, as well as national, prominence in instructional and research work dealing with problems of growing and harvesting fruits, vegetables and flowers.

In assuming the new position Dean Blair asked for the continued cooperation and support of all organizations and individuals allied in any way with the university's program for a more progressive agriculture. "If I were not sure of that cooperation and support, I could not accept this difficult job," he said.

"Through the university and its cooperating organizations and agencies, we have an opportunity for a constructive, coordinated program for agriculture and rural living. There must be no slackening of the progress which has been made under the policies and program of past years."

Do not be misled by lower prices of cars shown you or by excessive allowance on your trade-in and then be charged more in finance charges. This has never been practiced by the Key City Chevrolet. An invoice is given you at the time of the purchase showing the price of the car sold you, the finance and insurance charge, the exact amount of your trade-in allowance and the balance you owe on car bought, showing just how this balance is to be paid monthly.
